PLAYER SPOTLIGHT

JORDAN DUMINY

A 22-year-old South African professional golfer from Mossel Bay competing on the Sunshine Tour, with 60 professional tournaments already under his belt. A former captain of the GolfRSA Junior Proteas and invitee to the prestigious Junior Players Championship at TPC Sawgrass, Duminy has been one of South Africa's most promising golfing talents since his early teens, combining elite international exposure with a string of standout performances at both amateur and professional level.

ACOMPLISHMENTS

AMATEUR CAREER

Represented South Africa in the International Team at the Junior Presidents Cup at Royal Melbourne Golf Club.

Captained the Junior Proteas at the African Amateur Championship, finishing runners-up among 13 nations with a fourth-place individual finish.

Won the Nomads SA Boys Under-17 Championship and reached the SA Amateur Championship final, losing by just one hole to former world junior No.1 Wilco Nienaber.

PRO CAREER

Won the Kingswood Open, the Pinnacle Point Open, and the Bobby Lock Invitational in the same season, signalling an immediate impact on turning professional.

Earned invitations to compete in multiple South African Open Championships, going up against the best of the Sunshine Tour and DP World Tour fields.

60 professional starts by age 22, building a depth of tournament experience rare for a player at his stage of career development.
